

The New Zealand Bravery Awards 1999

Elizabeth R.

ROYAL WARRANT

Elizabeth the Second, by the Grace of God Queen of New Zealand and Her Other Realms and Territories, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith, to all to whom these Presents shall come, GREETING!

Whereas We are desirous of honouring persons who perform acts of bravery in saving or attempting to save the life of another person:

We do by these Presents for Us, Our Heirs and Successors, institute and create four New Zealand Bravery Awards.

1 Style

The New Zealand Bravery Awards shall consist of four levels and shall be styled and designated -

- I "The New Zealand Cross"
- II "The New Zealand Bravery Star"
- III "The New Zealand Bravery Decoration"
- IV "The New Zealand Bravery Medal".

2 Design Of Awards

- (1) The New Zealand Cross shall be a silver cross paty or formy (with straight edges) with a six-pointed gold star on each arm, and on a central disc within a wreath of gold New Zealand fern fronds the words "NEW ZEALAND", and on the reverse the inscription "FOR BRAVERY - MO TE MAIA"; the cross surmounted by a gold Royal Crown and attached by the letter "V" to a straight silver suspender bar bearing gold fern fronds.
- (2) The New Zealand Bravery Star shall be a silver eight-pointed star of four long points and four short points with, in the centre, a Royal Crown within a wreath of New Zealand fern fronds, both gilt, and on the reverse the inscription "FOR BRAVERY - MO TE MAIA".
- (3) The New Zealand Bravery Decoration shall be a silver cross paty or formy (with straight edges) with, in the centre, a Royal Crown within a wreath of New Zealand fern fronds, both gilt, and on the reverse the inscription "FOR BRAVERY - MO TE MAIA".
- (4) The New Zealand Bravery Medal shall be of bronze and circular in shape, bearing on the obverse the Effigy of the Sovereign within the Royal Styles and Titles for New Zealand, and on the reverse the inscription "FOR BRAVERY - MO TE MAIA" within a wreath of New Zealand fern fronds ensigned by a Royal Crown.

3 Design Of Bars

The Bars to the Awards shall, -

- (a) For the New Zealand Cross, the New Zealand Bravery Star, and the New Zealand Bravery Decoration, be of silver, oblong in shape, and bearing two New Zealand fern fronds:
- (b) For the New Zealand Bravery Medal, be of bronze, oblong in shape, and bearing two New Zealand fern fronds.

4 Ribbons

Each Award shall be worn from the left breast suspended from a distinctive ribbon that is, -

- (a) For the New Zealand Cross, 38 mm in width, of bright blue:
- (b) For the New Zealand Bravery Star, 32 mm in width, of bright blue with two narrow vertical stripes of red ochre (kokowhai):
- (c) For the New Zealand Bravery Decoration, 32 mm in width, of bright blue with three narrow vertical stripes of red ochre (kokowhai):
- (d) For the New Zealand Bravery Medal, 32 mm in width, of bright blue with four narrow vertical stripes of red ochre (kokowhai).

5 Criteria

The criteria for each Award shall be -

- (a) The New Zealand Cross: for acts of great bravery in situations of extreme danger:
- (b) The New Zealand Bravery Star: for acts of outstanding bravery in situations of danger:
- (c) The New Zealand Bravery Decoration: for acts of exceptional bravery in situations of danger:
- (d) The New Zealand Bravery Medal: for acts of bravery.

6 Eligibility For Awards

- (1) Civilians and military personnel who satisfy the criteria specified in clause 5 shall be eligible for the Awards and Bars to the Awards for acts of bravery for which a New Zealand Gallantry Award or other award may be inappropriate.
- (2) Citizens of other Commonwealth and foreign countries who satisfy the criteria specified in clause 5 shall be eligible for the Awards and Bars to the Awards.

7 Bars To Awards

A recipient of an Award who performs a further act of bravery that is worthy of recognition by the same Award may be awarded a Bar to be attached to the ribbon of his or her Award.

8 Posthumous Awards

The Awards and Bars to the Awards may be awarded posthumously.

9 Ribbon Emblems

The emblems to be worn on the ribbon of an Award, when the ribbon is worn alone, are, -

- (a) For the New Zealand Cross, a small silver representation of the cross, which shall be worn on the ribbon of the Award, and for each Bar awarded an additional emblem shall be worn on the ribbon:
- (b) For the New Zealand Bravery Star and the New Zealand Bravery Decoration, a small silver representation of an uncoiled fern frond, which shall be worn on the ribbon for each Bar awarded:
- (c) For the New Zealand Bravery Medal, a small bronze representation of an uncoiled fern frond, which shall be worn on the ribbon for each Bar awarded.

10 Postnominal Letters

Recipients of the Awards shall have the privilege of placing the appropriate letters after their names, as follows:

- I The New Zealand Cross - "N.Z.C."
- II The New Zealand Bravery Star - "N.Z.B.S."
- III The New Zealand Bravery Decoration - "N.Z.B.D."
- IV The New Zealand Bravery Medal - "N.Z.B.M."

11 Promulgation

All Awards and Bars to the Awards shall be published in the New Zealand Gazette.

12 Register

The names of all those persons who receive an Award or a Bar to an Award shall be recorded in a register kept by the Clerk of the Executive Council of Our Realm of New Zealand.

13 Engraving Of Awards

The name of the recipient shall be engraved on each Award.

14 Certificate

Every Award and every Bar to an Award shall be accompanied by a certificate signed by Us, Our Heirs and Successors, and countersigned by Our Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief in and over Our Realm of New Zealand.

15 Order Of Wear

It shall be competent for Us, Our Heirs and Successors, to determine from time to time, the order of wear of the four New Zealand Bravery Awards in relation to the insignia of Orders of Chivalry and Orders, Decorations, and Medals that have been or may be conferred in Our Realm of New Zealand.

16 Miniatures

Reproductions of the Awards and Bars to the Awards in miniature, which may be worn on certain occasions by those persons who have received an Award or Bar to an Award, shall not exceed one-half of the size of the full-size Award or Bar.

17 Lapel Badge

- (1) A Lapel Badge may be worn by recipients of an Award on those occasions it is inappropriate to wear the full-size or miniature Award.
- (2) The Lapel Badge shall not exceed 18 mm in diameter, and shall consist of a blue enamel disc with, in the centre, a silver cross paty or formy (with straight edges) in the centre of which is a silver Royal Crown on a small blue disc.

18 Making Of Awards

Awards of a New Zealand Bravery Award and of a Bar to an Award shall be made by Us, Our Heirs and Successors, only on a recommendation by Our Prime Minister of New Zealand or a Minister of the Crown acting for Our Prime Minister.

19 Delegated Powers

Delegated powers to make awards of a New Zealand Bravery Award or a Bar to an Award under the terms of this Our Warrant may, from time to time, be vested in Our Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief in and over Our Realm of New Zealand.

20 Forfeiture And Restoration

It shall be competent for Us, Our Heirs and Successors, on a recommendation by Our Prime Minister of New Zealand or a Minister of the Crown acting for Our Prime Minister -

- (a) To cancel and annul the conferment of an Award or Bar to an Award, or both, on any person, and to remove the person's name from the register; and
- (b) Where the conferment of an Award or Bar to an Award, or both, on any person has been cancelled or annulled, to restore the Award or the Bar, or both, to that person, and to restore the person's name to the register.

21 Annulment

We reserve to Ourselves, Our Heirs and Successors, full power of annulling, altering, abrogating, augmenting, interpreting, or dispensing with this Our Royal Warrant, or any part of it, by a notification under Our Sign Manual.

Given At Our Court at Saint James's this 20th day of September in the 48th Year of Our Reign.

By Her Majesty's Command,

J. M. Shipley,
Prime Minister of New Zealand.

Issued under the authority of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989.

Date of notification in Gazette: 23 September 1999.

The New Zealand Bravery Awards 1999 is administered in the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet.
